Acting Comm’r of Soc. Sec.,)	MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Defendant.)

This matter is before the Court on the Report and Recommendation of Magistrate Judge Darrell A. Clay. (R. 18). On March 2, 2021, Plaintiff Melanie L. Fouasnon filed her Complaint (R. 1) challenging the final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security denying her application for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Disability Insurance Benefits (DIB). Pursuant to Local Rule 72.2, the case was referred to a magistrate judge.

Magistrate Judge Clay issued his Report and Recommendation (R&R) on June 15, 2022, recommending the Court reverse the Commissioner’s decision and remand this matter for further administrative proceedings. (R. 18). Defendant notified the Court she will not file any objections to the R&R. (R. 19).

I. Standard of Review for a Magistrate Judge’s Report and Recommendation

The applicable standard of review of a magistrate judge’s report and recommendation depends upon whether objections were made. When objections are made to a report and recommendation of a magistrate judge, the district court conducts a de novo review. Fed. R. Civ.

P. 72(b)(3) states:

Resolving Objections. The district judge must determine de novo any part of the magistrate judge's disposition that has been properly objected to. The district judge may accept, reject, or modify the recommended disposition; receive further evidence; or return the matter to the magistrate judge with instructions.

The text of Rule 72(b)(3) addresses only the review of reports to which objections have been made, but does not specify any standard of review for those recommended dispositions to which no objections have lodged. The Advisory Committee on Civil Rules, however, commented on a district court's review of unopposed reports by magistrate judges. In regard to subsection (b) of Rule 72, the Advisory Committee stated: "When no timely objection is filed, the court need only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation." Fed. R. Civ. P. 72 Advisory Committee's notes (citing Campbell v. United States Dist. Court, 501 F.2d 196, 206 (9th Cir. 1974), cert. denied, 419 U.S. 879)).

"In the Sixth Circuit, failure to object constitutes a forfeiture." Schuster v. Comm'r of Soc. Sec., 2022 WL 219327, at *1 (N.D. Ohio, Jan. 25, 2022) (Lioi, J.) (citing Berkshire v. Beauvais, 928 F.3d 520, 530 (6th Cir. 2019) ("We clarify that forfeiture, rather than waiver, is the relevant term here.")); see also Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 152 (1985) (holding that the Sixth Circuit's waiver/forfeiture rule is within its supervisory powers and "[t]here is no indication that Congress, in enacting § 636(b)(1)(C), intended to require a district judge to review a magistrate's report to which no objections are filed"). Here, the Report and Recommendation placed the parties on notice as to the potential for forfeiture in the event of failure to object. (R. 18, PageID# 675-676).

II. Conclusion

The Court has carefully reviewed the Report and Recommendation, finds no clear error, and agrees with the findings set forth therein. The Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation (R. 18) is hereby ADOPTED. The Commissioner's decision is REVERSED and REMANDED for further proceedings consistent with the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation. On remand, the Commissioner shall consider and evaluate the record evidence, including all opinion evidence, pursuant to the governing regulations in determining Plaintiff's residual functional capacity and her claims for SSI and DIB.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
